2019 Perennial Peanut Field Day
Thursday May 30, 2019
UF/IFAS NFREC
155 Research Road, Quincy, Florida 32351

Registration: $10 at the door

Agenda

9:30 EST - Registration begins

10:00 - 10:05 - Welcome - Glen Aiken, NFREC Center Director

10:05 – 10:10 - Announcements – Ann Blount

10:10 - 10:30 - Business meeting - David Caruthers - President PPPA

10:30 - 11:00 - The economics of perennial peanut for hay and grazing - Dr. Chris Prevatt

11:00 - 11:30 - The NPGS Peanut Germplasm collection - Dr. Shyam Tallury and Dr. Melanie Harrison, USDA-ARS National Plant Germplasm System, Griffin, Georgia

11:30 - 12:30 - Field tours of ornamentals, diseases, and weed ID - Ian Small, Kelly Thomas, Brent Sellers, Pratap Devoka, David Wright, Sunny Liao, Koko Chen, Ann Blount, and Cheryl Mackowiak

12:30 - 1:15 - Lunch

1:15 – 1:30 - Ornamental aspects of perennial peanut -Kelly Thomas, Jerry Stageman and Gary Knox

1:30 - 2:00 - Perennial peanut response to water stress – Victor Guerra/Cheryl Mackowiak

2:00 - 2:30 - Weed and herbicide update - Brent Sellers

2:30 - 3:00 - Producer panel spotlight, wrap up and evaluation - moderated by Cheryl Mackowiak

Poster Session: Lisa Baxter, UGA, Kim Mullenix, AU, Lynn Sollenberger, UF and our graduate students

Sponsored by: